Dear Customer:

It is our goal to provide you with up-to-date product literature. In order to achieve this goal, we are supplying the attached pages.

These pages will update your High Performance D-subminiature catalog to the new revision of C-005 Rev B1. It also will correct errors contained in our printed material and/or provide information about product expansion. These changes are indicated by bold italics and are underlined. Please reference page numbers at bottom of each page for proper placement in the catalog.

If you would like to request additional printed copies, email your request to info@connectpositronic.com. Please indicate the catalog and revision level requested, along with your name, address, city, state/province, country, and postal code.

Also, updated PDF catalogs can be obtained by visiting our web site at www.connectpositronic.com.
